- Where has the market come from in recent months?
- Did we have a Santa Rally at Christmas time?
- To where is the market going in 2020?
- How to protect our capital in the year ahead.
