5	User Group Stock Picking share market game – In the May 2021 sessions we re-commenced the BCUG Stock Picking game . Each month we will review the performance of everyone's stock selections, and consider any possible exit strategies (and refer to the Tracking Table and update as appropriate), and potentially review the game rules. All users are welcome to nominate one stock for the game and your reason for selecting this stock. Please note that participating is optional, and you are quite welcome to simply sit and observe the selections and comments of others. In this segment: (a) Review the list of active game participants and their stocks. (b) Has an exit been triggered for any stocks (and explain why)? (c) Record any stock sales, and new purchases. A profitable “portfolio” can continue to accumulate profits, while a closed and losing portfolio can re-start at $10,000. (d) Review the game rules as appropriate. See the game information and rules here (and the Tracking Table here), or see both in the BCUG Google Drive (access available for all users).	45	(all)
