Position sizing

March 2014

"The share market can seem mystical and almost like black magic; but with the right support and assistance, it just seems like magic."

This presentation

This presentation was delivered to the U3A Manningham (Stockmarket Group) in March 2014.

The subject of position sizing has been raised in our BullCharts User Group meetings in the last few months, in discussion about the "$100k Portfolio", and many of these slides were developed and presented to the user group meetings.
