Introduction

Special comments

This set of presentation slides
is for the ASA seminar day “Share strategies to suit your investing style”
in Melbourne, August 2018.

This slide set comprises many more slides than we will be able to deliver in the time available on the day; but they are offered here in order to provide a more detailed explanation of the topic for the ASA Seminar participants.

The slides that will be displayed and discussed on the day are flagged with a green tick in the bottom left corner of the slide.

Special Comments

As stated on the slide above, there are too many slides in this set to be covered in a one hour session. But they are all included so as to better cover the topic. Especially for anyone reading the slides (and these Speaker Notes) outside of the seminar presentation.

The slides that are discussed in the seminar presentation are indicated with the small green tick in the lower left corner of the slide.
